Week 6 – Lesson Plans

HS/TE21/0003

Grade 9

Topic – Reported Speech

Name of the teacher	HS/TE21/0003
Class	Grade 9
Date	12,13,14,15,16/ 10/ 2026
Time	40*5 minutes
No. of students	44
Classroom profile	The lesson will be conducted in a grade 9 classroom in a girls' school consisting of approximately 44 students aged 14 years. The students have a mixed level of English proficiency, with some learners being confident in using English, while others require additional support and guidance. Most students have a basic knowledge of grammar and vocabulary, but may hesitate to participate in English due to fear of making mistakes.

Rationale	Reported speech is an important grammatical area for grade 9 students, because it enables them to report what another person has said without using the speaker's exact words.
Main aim	At the end of the lesson, the students will be able to understand and accurately use reported speech to report statements, questions, commands, and requests in spoken and written English.
ILOs	At the end of the lesson, the students will be able to, • Identify direct and indirect speech in given examples. • Transform direct speech to indirect speech.
Personal aims	• To give clear and simple explanations of reported speech.

Grade 7

Topic – Present Perfect Tense

Name of the teacher	HS/TE21/0003
Class	Grade 7
Date	12,13,14/ 10/ 2026
Time	40*3 minutes
No. of students	42
Classroom profile	The lesson is designed for a grade 7 class in a girls' school. The students are young English language learners with mixed levels of English proficiency. Most students are able to produce simple sentences, but some may need support when forming sentences using the present perfect tense.
Rationale	Understanding and using present perfect tense accurately is a crucial ability. Thus, this lesson on present perfect tense is important because students need this tense to talk about experiences, recently completed actions, and actions that have a connection with the present.

Main aim	By the end of the lesson, the students will be able to understand and use the present perfect tense to talk about completed actions connected to the present and actions that have occurred within an unfinished period of time.
ILOs	At the end of the lesson, the students will be able to, • Identify present perfect sentences. • Construct affirmative and negative sentences using present perfect tense.
Personal aims	• To give clear and simple explanation all the time. • To provide real-life examples. • To encourage students to express their ideas during the lesson without hesitation. • To give feedback where necessary.
Skills integrated	Reading, writing, speaking

Anticipated problems and solutions	Problem	Solution
	• Students may confuse present perfect with simple past. • Students may use the wrong past participle of irregular verbs.	• Give clear examples and highlight the difference between has/have+ PPV and the simple past form. • Provide a short list of common irregular past participle and practice them through quick matching activities.

Stage	Stage aim	Procedure	Interaction pattern	Materials	Time
Lead-in	Activate learners' prior knowledge and create interest	The teacher asks questions such as “Have you eaten breakfast?” and “Have you visited Kandy?” Then, students answer the teacher.	T-Ss	Board	5 minutes
Pre-task (contextualization)	Introduce the target language through a meaningful context	Tell a short story using Present Perfect: “I have visited Kandy. I have eaten kiribath. I have seen an elephant.” Ask students what they notice.	T-Ss	Board	5 minutes

While-task (noticing)	Help learners discover the structure	Write examples on the board. Underline have/has and circle the past participles. Ask: "What comes after have/has?"	T-Ss	Board	5 minutes
While-task (presentation)	Teach the form and basic meaning	The teacher explains Subject + have/has + past participle. Explain that Present Perfect can describe past experiences/actions connected to the present.	T-Ss	Board	10 minutes
While-task (guided practice)	Practice affirmative sentences	The teacher gives subjects and verbs: I/eat, She/visit, They/play.	Ss-Ss	Writing books	7 minutes

		Students construct Present Perfect sentences.
Post-task (pair activity)	Use the target language meaningfully	Students ask each other simple questions such as “Have you visited Colombo?” and answer “Yes, I have. /No, I haven't.”	Ss-Ss	Board Writing books	5 minutes
Post-task (review)	Check understanding	Students state the structure and give examples. Teacher corrects common errors.	T-Ss	Board	3 minutes
Pre-task (revision)	Recall the affirmative form	Teacher gives subjects and verbs; students produce	T-Ss	Board	5 minutes

		Present Perfect sentences orally.
Pre-task (noticing)	Prepare learners for negative and question forms	Write: "She hasn't finished her" and "Have you finished your work?" Students identify the changes.	T-Ss	Board	5 minutes
While-task (presentation)	Teach the negative form	Introduce: "have not/haven't + past participle" and "has not/hasn't + past participle" with examples.	T-Ss	Board	5 minutes
While-task (presentation)	Teach interrogative form	Introduce: Have/Has + subject + past participle?	T-Ss	Board	7 minutes

		Practice short answers: Yes, I have. /No, I haven't.
While-task (Vocabulary/grammar focus)	Introduce ‘ever’ and ‘never’	Model: “Have you ever ridden a horse?” / “I have never ridden a horse.” Explain meaning and position.	T-Ss	Board	5 minutes
While-task (guided practice)	Practice already and yet	Present examples: “She has already finished her homework.” / “She hasn't finished her homework yet.” Students complete similar sentences.	T-Ss	Writing books	5 minutes

Post-task	Use Present Perfect communicatively	Students ask classmates questions such as “Have you ever visited Galle?” and record answers.	Ss-Ss	Writing books	6 minutes
Post-task (feedback)	Consolidate learning	Discuss answers and correct common errors from the survey.	T-Ss	Board	2 minutes
Pre-task (revision game)	Review the previous two lessons	Groups complete incomplete sentences involving affirmative, negative and interrogative forms.	Ss-Ss	Sentence cards (see appendix 8)	5 minutes

While-task	Distinguish Present Perfect from Simple Past	Compare: “I visited Kandy last year.” and “I have visited Kandy.” Explain the role of finished past time.	T-Ss	Board	10 minutes
While-task (controlled practice)	Check accurate tense selection	Students choose Present Perfect or Simple Past in contextualized sentences and compare answers with a partner.	Ss Ss-Ss	Writing books	10 minutes
Post-task	Develop meaningful oral use	Students ask classmates questions: “Have you ever eaten Chinese food?” “Have you ever won a	Ss-Ss	Papers	7 minutes competition?" and record names.

Post-task	Assess achievement and encourage reflection	Students complete a short assessment covering affirmative, negative, questions, ever/never, and present perfect vs. simple past.	Ss	Assessment sheets (see appendix 9)	8 minutes

Topic – Comparative and Superlative Adjectives

Name of the teacher	HS/TE21/0003
Class	Grade 7

Date	15,16/ 10/2026
Time	40*2 minutes
No. of students	42
Classroom profile	The class consists of Grade 7 students with mixed levels of English proficiency. Most students have a basic understanding of common adjectives such as big, small, tall, beautiful, and fast, but they may have difficulty changing adjectives into comparative and superlative forms and using them accurately in sentences. Some students are confident speakers, while others may need additional support and encouragement. Pair and group activities will therefore be used to increase participation and provide opportunities for peer learning.
Rationale	Comparative and superlative adjectives are important for Grade 7 learners because they enable students to describe differences and make comparisons in everyday communication. The lesson moves from familiar adjectives to guided discovery of comparative and superlative forms before students practice them in meaningful contexts.

		• Students may confuse irregular forms such as gooder and goodest • Some students may be reluctant to speak in front of the class.		superlative. Provide repeated examples. • Introduce good → better → best and bad → worse → worst as special/irregular forms. • Allow pair/group rehearsal before asking students to share answers with the whole class.
Stage	Stage aim	Procedure	Interaction pattern	Materials	Time
Lead-in	To activate students' prior knowledge of adjectives and introduce the concept of comparison.	Teacher shows pictures of three animals, e.g., an elephant, dog and ant. Teacher asks: "Which animal is	T-Ss	Picture cards Board (see appendix 10)	8 minutes short-guided discovery chart.

While-task 1	To provide controlled practice in forming comparative and superlative adjectives.	Students receive a worksheet containing base adjectives. They complete the comparative and superlative forms. Example: tall → taller → tallest; beautiful → more beautiful →	Ss Ss -Ss T-Ss	Worksheet (see appendix 11)	12 minutes receive points for grammatically correct sentences.

Post-task	To encourage students to independently produce comparative and superlative sentences.	Students work in pairs and choose a category such as animals, food, places, school objects, or sports. They write two comparative and two superlative sentences. Selected pairs read their	Ss-Ss	Writing books	12 minutes
