Lesson Plan – Week 3

Grade 9

Name of the teacher	HS/TE21/0003
Class	Grade 9
Date	21, 22, 23 /09/2026
Time	40*3 minutes
No. of students	44
Rationale	Relative pronouns are important in English language learning. This provides the learners advanced language practice. Thus, this lesson is crucial for learners even for their future usage.
Main aim	Identify relative pronouns, to join ideas, and use them in sentences accurately both in writing and speaking.
ILOs	At the end of the lesson, the students will be able to, • Identify relative pronouns in sentences • Explain the basic functions of relative pronouns
Personal aims	• To give clear and simple explanations • To encourage active participation of the whole class • To provide constructive feedback when necessary
Skills integrated	Reading, writing, vocabulary, critical thinking

Anticipated problems and solutions		Problem		Solution
		• Students may confuse between relative pronouns. • Some students may reluctant to give answers.		• Give clear explanation with proper examples. • Encourage peer/ group discussions before whole class activities.
Stage	Stage aim	Procedure	Interaction pattern	Time	Materials
Lead-in	Activate prior knowledge and create interest	Write on the board: "The boy won the competition. He is my friend." Ask students: 'can we combine these two sentences?' Elicit: "The boy who won the competition is my friend." Underline 'who' and ask what it refers to.	T-Ss	5 minutes	Green board Chalk
Lead-in	Establish the purpose of the lesson	Give 2 more examples: "This is the school. I studied here"	T-Ss	5 minutes	Green board Chalk

		This is the school where I studied. “I remember the day. We met on that day.” I can remember the day when we met. Ask students what the highlighted words have in common.
Pre-task	Help students notice relative pronouns in context	Present examples containing who, whom, whose, which, that, where, when. Students work in pairs and identify the relative pronouns and the nouns they refer to.	Ss-Ss	10 minutes	Green board Chalk
Pre-task	Develop understanding of function	Give students categories: people, things, possession, place, time.	S-S T-Ss	10 minutes	Writing books Pens Pencils

		Students classify the relative pronouns under the correct categories. Teacher elicits answers and clarifies.
While-task	Check initial understanding	Give oral sentences with blanks. Students choose the appropriate pronoun. Eg: “The woman _____ teaches us English is kind.” “This is the place ____ we met.”	S	5 minutes
While-task	Consolidate the first stage	Students write 3 sentences using different relative pronouns. Invite a few students to share answers.	S	5 minutes	Writing books Pens
While-task	Prepare students for textbook practice	Ask students to open workbook activity.	T-Ss	5 minutes	workbook

		Model the 1st sentence. Ask: "What noun does the blank refer to?" "Is it a person, thing, place, or time?"
While-task	Practice selecting appropriate relative pronouns	Students complete the activity individually. Teacher monitors without interrupting unnecessarily. Provide support where required.	S	12 minutes	workbook
While-task	Encourage collaborative learning	Students compare their answers with a partner. Ask them to discuss answers they disagree about.	Ss-Ss	5 minutes	workbook
Post-task	Provide feedback and reinforce reasoning	Conduct whole class checking. Instead of only giving answers, ask students,	T-Ss	8 minutes

		'why they selected each pronoun'
Pre-task	Introduce defining relative clauses	Write: "The boy who won the competition is my brother." Ask: "Do we need the relative clause to know which boy?" Guide students to understand that the information is necessary. Introduce the term 'defining relative clause'	T-Ss	5 minutes	Green board Chalk
Pre-task	Introduce non-defining relative clauses	Write: "Ravi, who won the competition, is my brother." Ask whether the information between the commas is necessary or additional. Introduce non-	T-Ss	5 minutes	Green board Chalk defining relative clause

Post-task	Assess achievement of lesson outcomes	Give students a short exit ticket with 5 sentences requiring suitable relative pronouns. Check answers quickly and clarify final misconceptions.	S T-Ss	7 minutes	Exit ticket

Name of the teacher	HS/TE21/0003
Class	Grade 9
Date	24,25/ 09/2026
Time	40*2 minutes
No. of students	44
Rationale	Formation of new words using accurate affixes is a skill to be improved. Thus, this lesson helps students to learn formation of new words using affixes and also to witness how word classes change accordingly.
Main aim	Students will be able to form new words using common prefixes and suffixes and use them correctly in sentences.
ILOs	By the end of the lesson, students will be able to, • Distinguish between prefixes and suffixes • Form meaningful words and use them in sentences
Personal aims	• Give clear and simple explanations • Encourage student participation • Manage 40-minute class effectively
Anticipated problems and solutions	Problems	Solutions
	Students may confuse prefixes and suffixes	Give simple explanations with examples

Stage	Stage aim	Procedure	Interaction pattern	Time	Materials
Lead-in	To introduce affixes	Write Happy-unhappy Happy-happiness Elicit what has been added	T-Ss	8 minutes	Whiteboard Marker pen
Pre-task	Explain the prefixes and suffixes	Explain the difference and give examples from the text book	T-Ss	12 minutes	Text book
While-task 1	Practice prefixes	Students complete Activity 11 and compare answers.	Ss	18 minutes	Text book Writing book
While-task 2	Form meaningful words	Students complete activity 12 and teacher checks answers.	T-Ss	12 minutes	Text book Writing book
While-task 3	Use correct word forms	Students complete Activity 12 and teacher	T-Ss	12 minutes	Text book Writing book

		checks answers
Post-task	Apply the knowledge	Students form new words from given base words and make sentences	Ss	13 minutes	Writing book
Closure	Check understanding	Students give one word with a prefix, one with a suffix, and one sentence	Ss	5 minutes	Writing books

Lesson Plan – Week 3

Grade 7

Name of the teacher	HS/TE21/0003
Class	Grade 7
Date	21,22 / 09/2026
Time	40*2 minutes

Stage	Stage aim	procedure	Interaction pattern	Time	Material

Lead-in	To activate students' prior knowledge and introduce the idea of actions happening at a particular past time	Ask: "What were you doing yesterday at 7 pm?" Elicit answers "I was studying" "I was watching TV"	T-Ss	5 minutes
Pre-task	To help students understand the meaning and structure of the past continuous	Draw a simple timeline: Yesterday- 7 pm- now. Explain that the action was in progress at a particular time in the past. Introduce examples: I was studying/ They were playing cricket. Elicit "was/were verb+ing"	T-Ss	10 minutes	Whiteboard Marker pen
While-task 1	To practice forming affirmative past continuous sentences	Give clues such as 6.30 pm, + study, 8.00 pm + watch TV Students make sentences: I was	Ss	8 minutes	Whiteboard Marker pen studying at 6.30 pm Check answers together.

While-task 2	To use the past continuous to describe daily activities	Students complete their typical daily schedule according to Activity 6. They then tell a partner what they were doing at the given times.	Ss	10 minutes	Text book Writing book Pen
While-task 3	To develop oral fluency using the target structure	Student A asks: "What were you doing at 7 pm?" Student B answers: "I was doing my homework." Students change partners and use different times.	Ss-Ss	8 minutes
While-task 4	To introduce and practice the negative form	Write: subject +was/were +not+ verb+ing Give examples. Students change	T-Ss	7 minutes	Whiteboard Marker pen affirmative sentences into negative sentences

While-task 5	To practice affirmative and negative forms by comparing activities.	Model: students compare their schedules with a partner and make similar sentences	Ss	10 minutes	Writing books
Post-task 1	To consolidate the target language through meaningful communication	One student secretly chooses an activity and time. Other students ask: “Were you watching TV at 8 pm?” The student answers: “yes, I was.” / “no, I wasn’t”. Continue until the activity is guessed	Ss	7 minutes
Post-task 2	To assess students’ understanding of form and use	Students complete sentences and check answers quickly.	S T-Ss	8 minutes	Writing book

Name of the teacher	HS/TE21/0003
Class	Grade 7
Date	24, 25 / 09/2026
Time	40*2 minutes
No. of students	42

Classroom profile	The class consists of 42 students with different language abilities. The students have the basic knowledge of forming simple sentences in English.
Rationale	Writing grammatically correct sentences is a crucial skill. Thus, this lesson helps the learners to learn a new grammar point.
Main aim	Students will be able to use the present perfect tense correctly in simple sentences and conversations.
ILOs	At the end of the lesson, the students will be able to, • Identify present perfect tense • Form affirmative, negative, and question forms
Personal aims	Give clear explanations Encourage student participation Monitor and support students
Skills integrated	Reading, writing

Stage	Stage aim	Procedure	Interaction pattern	Time	Materials
Lead-in	Introduce the tense	Ask simple questions: Have you eaten mango? Have you finished your homework?	T-Ss	8 minutes

Pre-task	Present the form	Explain has/have + PPV with affirmative, negative, and question examples.	T-Ss	15 minutes	Whiteboard Marker pen
While-task 1	Practice questions	Students complete Activity 10 in pairs by asking and answering questions	Ss	15 minutes	Text book Writing book
While-task 2	Practice sentence formation	Students complete activity 11 and check answers with a partner	Ss	15 minutes	Text book Writing book
While-task 3	Reinforce the forms	Students change given sentences into affirmative, negative, and question forms	S	10 minutes	White board Marker pen Writing book
Post-tsk	Use the tense communicatively	Students interview a partner using	Ss	12 minutes

		3-4 “Have you ever…..?” questions and share answers			